LIFTING THE VEIL ON THE NEW WORLD ORDER – PART I

“The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders, and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this reason God will send them strong delusion, that they should believe the lie”.

(2Thessalonians 2:9-11)

Hugo Salinas Price is a member of the ‘Billionaires Club’. In a recent interview, Senor Price reveals what he knows about the coming New World Order. It is all ‘part of the plan’. Now what he reveals is – to students of the subject – not new territory. Readers of this newsletter and the ‘prophetically aware’, realize that we are living in an age when the Powers-That-Be are orchestrating our future. But the voice of Salinas Price will not be the only one heard in this series. Through the course of the next several weeks, we’ll also be investigating what others had to say on the subject – both the famous and the obscure.

INSIDER SCOOP

Hugo Salinas Price should know. While speaking to King World News, Salinas Price did not mince words. The world is in trouble and it’s no accident. He told interviewer Eric King that “the elite, do not want to relinquish their power. They plan to retain it under full-blown socialism for the populations of the West.” As he explained: “What we have had in the West, in recent decades, has been the welfare state. The welfare state is, in my view, what I would call, ‘socialism light.’ We’ve had ‘socialism light’ and now we’re going to transition to full-blown socialism.” A firm believer in sound money, Price offers that what the PTB have created is a welfare system based on “fiat money”. Entertainment and war are among the other created distractions that allow the uber-rich to maintain power. This “socialism light” is what the elite use “in order to maintain their power. Remember, socialism impoverishes, it consumes capital, it does not accumulate capital. So, you will have this de-capitalization that will come with socialism.”

Another aspect of socialism is the resort to rationing. We are beginning to see that in our health care as Obama Care takes effect. Another aspect of it is the fact that over 46 million are now receiving food assistance. And along with that comes a card-based rather than a cash-based economy. That in itself is revolutionary. All of this is occurring in “all countries that have central banks.” [Mmmm, what could be the common thread there? Wait, wait! Pick me, pick me! I’ve got it: It’s central bankers...the Global Elite!!!] But listen where he goes from there. “It means the inevitable decline of industrial civilization, and the inevitable impoverishment of the world’s population. This means that over time there will be a decline in the number of people on this earth.” That fact is exacerbated by – [at least according to Price] - “the probability that we are at peak oil, as that prime source of energy comes to a point where it begins to decline, you will see a decrease in the population.”<sup>1</sup>

This is the point where it all gets very interesting; especially when we look at what some of the principle promoters of this New World Order are telling us. Here are the words of one Thomas Ferguson of the US State Department Office of Population Affairs. “There is a single theme behind all our work—we must reduce population levels... Population is a political problem. Once population is out of control, it requires authoritarian government, even fascism, to reduce it....Our program in El Salvador didn’t work. The infrastructure was not there to support it. There were just too g--d----d many people....To really reduce population, quickly, you have to pull all the males into the fighting and you have to kill significant numbers of fertile age females....The quickest way to reduce population is through famine, like in Africa, or through disease like the Black Death.” A colder sentiment could hardly be imagined. Yet perhaps we gain context when we look at the words of David Spangler, the Director of Planetary Initiative, United Nations. He said: “No one will enter the New World Order unless he or she will make a pledge to worship Lucifer. No one will enter the New Age unless he will take a Luciferian Initiation."<sup>2</sup>

Researcher and medical doctor Dr Stanley Monteith firmly believes that the global program for population reduction is part of a "master plan".<sup>3</sup> For those that doubt it, the ultimate insider, - Bildeberg and Illuminati big whig David Rockefeller confirms that analysis for us. He tells us: "We are on the verge of a global transformation. All we need is the right major crisis and the nations will accept the New World Order".<sup>4</sup> The Club of Rome, an organization dedicated to a one world government let the cat out of the bag that much of the globalist agenda is driven by a series of contrived crises. "In searching for a new enemy to unite us, we came up with the idea that pollution, the threat of global warming, water shortages, famine and the like would fit the bill.... But in designating them as the enemy, we fall into the trap of mistaking symptoms for causes. All these dangers are caused by human intervention and it is only through changed attitudes and behavior that they can be overcome. The real enemy, then, is humanity itself."<sup>5</sup> The fact is that the culture has been being prepared for a very long time, - dating back to the early days of last century at least; - to accept the notion of population reduction. It came in the form of a pseudo-science called eugenics. And this canard fed by applying the tenets of Darwinism to the social sphere, - (survival of the fittest), - united some of the most „enlightened“ minds of the British and American intelligentsia, the masterminds of Hitler“s Third Reich and the Holocaust with Planned Parenthood founder Margaret Sanger and the abortion movement. Eugenics attempts to control and limit human reproduction to "improve or impair the racial quality of future generations". At its start it had quite an impressive intellectual pedigree. At its peak Woodrow Wilson, Winston Churchill, George Bernhard Shaw, HG Wells, joined Sanger and Hitler and their ilk in supporting this abomination. Even President Theodore Roosevelt once said, "Society has no business to permit degenerates to reproduce their kind".<sup>6 7</sup>

By 1932 the movement in England was calling for the sterilization or even elimination of anyone who was a hereditary "public burden". In the US it resulted in the infamous Tuskegee Study, in which 400 syphilitic black men were recruited for "treatment" and then treatment was withheld to "study" their cases while the syphilis destroyed their bodies. Now the Rockefeller Foundation got behind the eugenics movement and its goals. Through Swiss Psychiatrist Ernst Rudin they supported the Kaiser Wilhelm Institute for Anthropology, Eugenics and Human Heredity. In the early thirties Rudin took a position in Nazi Germany under Heinrich Himmler, where he helped draw up a sterilization law based on "American Model" legislation. The Nazis began using films to "sell" euthanasia to the German public. (They were not quite ready to receive that yet.) The Rockefellers continued their involvement with Germany well into the war using the vehicles of complicated cartel arrangements with the Warburg family and the German industrial giant IG Farben. It was Farben that built the Auschwitz concentration camp and produced the poison gas Zyklon-B. It is alleged that there was Rockefeller money that helped finance the SS presence at Auschwitz. Rockefeller dollars continued to support eugenics after the end of World War II, as the movement got a facelift with new organizational names, becoming the Society for the Study of Social Biology. There was Rockefeller Foundation support again for the establishment of International Planned Parenthood.<sup>8 9</sup>

Meanwhile back home, Margaret Sanger, the founder of Planned Parenthood, - (an organization generously supported by our tax dollars), - and chief proponent of abortion was a supporter of the Nazi plan for the "genetic engineering of the German population". She openly called for the "extermination of "human weeds" ...the segregation of "morons, misfits and the maladjusted" and...the sterilization of "genetically inferior races". As late as 1939, she was promoting something called the "Negro Project", wherein she hoped to eliminate members of that "inferior race". She even tried to enlist the Black Clergy to support her movement so as to make it more palatable to the people she was targeting. Monteith writes how over time she became "increasingly obsessed with her occultic beliefs". Population control became an essential part of her religion. "I look forward to seeing humanity free someday of the tyranny of Christianity no less than Capitalism." She eventually became both a Communist and a Theosophist. Theosophy is a New Age religion incorporating much of the vast body of occult doctrine and is antithetical to Biblical Christianity. Adolph Hitler based much of his racial policy on the work of Sanger and her cohorts in the eugenics movement. They were natural allies, as Hitler too had his roots in Theosophy. He even introduced pagan practices and doctrines into the official German church during his reign. Stanley Monteith points out the Theosophy is "based upon the repudiation of God and the worship of Lucifer" himself.<sup>10 11 12</sup>

The notion of radical population reduction had definitely become part of a religious creed. New Ager Matthew Fox, who is looking for the coming of a "Cosmic Christ" asks the question whether "...the human species should be allowed to continue on this planet?". And Robert Muller, former Assistant Secretary General of the UN and supporter of the United Religious Initiative publicly celebrates the fact that the UN has prevented 2.2 billion births.<sup>13</sup> It is just that unification of the political with the religious and economic that drives this movement. The UN and the World Health Organization have been integral parts of that drive as have globalist organizations like our friends at the Club of Rome. In one interesting tie, Lucis Trust, - which started as the Lucifer Publishing Company, - an arm of the House of Theosophy, - has an official presence at the UN. As for the Club of Rome, they are clear that they support “a new world economic order and a global resources allocation system”. In 1980, one scientist member of the Club called for the US to “cut its population by two-thirds within the next 50 years”. Another report called Global Future, advocated a program of contraception, abortion and sterilization. Then in 1982, another presidential report; - Global 2000: Blueprint for Genocide was published. It stated that the policies it advocated “are correctly understood as political statements of intent- the intent on the part of such policy centers as the Council on Foreign Relations, the Trilateral Commission, and the International Monetary Fund, to pursue policies that will result not only in the death of the 120 million cited in the reports, but in the death of upwards of two billion people by the year 2000”.<sup>14</sup>

HE RESTORETH MY SOUL: Psalm 23:3a – PART II “A Journey from Darkness to Light”

Pastor Sean O’Brien

THE MAKEUP OF MAN

[After laying out, in a very personal way, the dilemma he faced in PART I, Pastor Sean begins to examine the spiritual dimensions of the problem in PART II. In this installment he looks at the tripartite make-up of Man.]

The Trichotomy of Man and the Kingdom of the Soul

2 Corinthians 5:17 refers to our spirit man which is recreated into a new man and sealed till the day of redemption. (John 6:26-27, 2 Corinthians 1:22, Ephesians 1:13-14, Ephesians 4:30). Our spirit man, once alive to God at creation, was made dead to God by the sin of Adam (termed Original Sin in Theology). The Lord told Adam that if he ate of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil, or even touch it he will die (Genesis 2:16-17). We all know the story. Adam ate it and didn’t die a natural death, nor did he lose sight of his self identity and experience a soul death, however he was keenly aware that something drastic had changed. He felt something he had never felt before, shame. His spirit was dead to God’s Spirit and he was no longer one with Him. He was disconnected from his Creator. As a temporary measure, the Lord shed the blood of animals and used their skins to cover the shame and nakedness of Adam and Eve, and made atonement for their sins. He also promised a Savior in Genesis 3:15.

The immutable spiritual law of seed time and harvest which was given in the beginning (Genesis 1:29) dictates that everything that is sown is also reaped (Galatians 6:7). Seed always determines the harvest. Since Adam was now sinful, all who are born of the seed of man are sinful in nature and in need of a Savior (original sin), and dead to God in their spirit. So, even those who seem to have an easier time in their salvation because they have not sinned to the extent of the rest of us are still in need of a Savior.

For this reason, Jesus could not be born of the seed of man. The miraculous conception was necessary for Him to be born without sin. For Him to Qualify as an option to save man from their sins, he had to enter the world legally, through the womb of a woman. He also needed sinless blood to shed. He had to be conceived from the seed of a sinless father, God Himself. Remember, seed determines harvest. If God sows his incorruptible seed into a woman, the harvest is God (Jesus). This is the Gospel (good news). Whosoever believes in him shall not perish, but have everlasting life (John 3:16). If you are a whosoever, and you believe and receive this truth, then you are saved. Let me make this clear, your spirit is immediately recreated and sealed and made alive unto God, but your mind, which is an aspect of your soul must be renewed day by day. “Therefore we do not lose heart. Even though our outward man is perishing, yet the inward man is being renewed day by day.” (2 Corinthians 4:16) (See also Ephesians 4:23 & Colossians 3:10)

The Body

As stated earlier, man is created in three parts, body, soul, and spirit. The body is the flesh, blood, and bones of a man. It is our earthly tabernacle only, and out of necessity, at the bodily resurrection of the living and the dead, it will be changed to a spiritual body (1 Corinthians 15:13-58, 1 John 3:1-2). The scripture makes it clear that our flesh is repulsive to God and is of no use to Him, and cannot inherit the Kingdom (1 Corinthians 15:50, Romans 7:18). Furthermore, flesh is where sin dwells and does not and cannot please God and will never be saved nor submit to God of its own will. (Romans 7:23-24). Our body houses our spirit and our soul.

The Spirit of man

The spirit of a man is our life force that comes from God. When God removes the spirit of man, or the breath of God from him, his heart stops beating, his blood ceases to flow, he stops breathing, and he turns back to dust from whence he came ( Genesis 2:7, Genesis 6:3, Numbers 16:22, Job 32:8, Job 34:14-15, Proverbs 20:27, Ecclesiastes 3:21, 1 Corinthians 2:11). In Genesis 2:7 it says that God breathed the breath of life into man's nostrils and he became a living soul. The word for breath in Hebrew is nshamah (pr. Nesh-aw-maw'), which means literally breath, spirit or inspiration. This part of a man is the part of man that became dead to God after Adam sinned. It is, so to speak, the tabernacle of God in man, his inner man, or the Holy of Holies in the temple of man. God vacated man's spirit when man was separated from God by sin. But as long as God leaves the spirit of a man within him, which is God's breath, man's flesh stays alive although he is separated from God's presence. When a man accepts the finished work of Jesus on Calvary's Cross as full atonement for his sins, his nakedness is covered, his sins are completely washed away, his sin nature is changed, and God invades man's spirit. Man becomes alive to God once again and God dwells within him. His spirit becomes sealed till the day of redemption and he becomes the 2 Corinthians 5:17 new creature. "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new." Although man's salvation is an event, it is only the beginning of the journey. We have the soul to deal with.

The Soul

A man's soul is his self identity. I know I am me and I know what my name is and who I am because I have a soul. It is also commonly referred to as the conscience. Our soul is comprised of three elements, the intellect, the will and the emotions. It is the reasoning part of man, the part of man that has free moral agency to choose Jesus or not. What we learn, our experiences, and how we feel about them affect who we are. We experience this world through our five senses, taste, touch, feel, hearing, and seeing. This is the part of man that will answer to Jesus at the Judgment. "For we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ." (Romans 14:10) (Also see 2 Corinthians 5:10).

Our soul, while we may think of it as an internal part of our body, is really a vast kingdom that is not limited by time or space. In our mind we can dream about our future, or imagine being on vacation in a place we have only seen on a picture. Because of its capacity, some of us cannot escape the vividness of the trauma of our own past, and never forget our most precious memories. The Bible also refers to our soul as the heart of a man. It is possible to be saved and sealed yet still need deliverance. Since our soul is a vast limitless kingdom, then our experiences can bring us to new places in the kingdom of our soul. Those of us who have been involved in deep soul sin have gone to dark places in the soul that others have not gone to. In these dark places hide things like mindsets and demonic influences that need the light and truth of God's Word to dismantle strongholds in the souls of tormented believers. Deliverance comes as a process, or journey, when we apply scriptural principles and take back the areas of our soul that are occupied by the Kingdom of darkness. We must pray and fast and apply the blood and the truth of scripture to these areas. As 2 Corinthians 10:3-5 reminds us, "For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh. For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ."

ONE LONELY YADA

Imagine that! It's happened again! Who could have figured that Iran's nuclear program would be afflicted by yet another computer virus? This one is being called Flame and is being described as far more dangerous than the Stuxnet virus which hit a few years back. This current version not only disables computer systems – but also steals data in the process. It is so sophisticated that it can "transfer files, send screenshots, give keyboard typing patterns and even record audio files." Israel's Arutz Sheva news service reports that it "has struck at least 600 specific computer systems in Iran, Syria, Lebanon, Egypt, Sudan, Saudi Arabia and the Palestinian Authority." One expert states that it is a virus with capabilities "that could only have been created by a state or other large entity." [Help me out here; I wonder which state it could be.] Vice Prime Minister Moshe Ya'alon kind of gave away the store on this when he told a radio interviewer: "Whoever sees the Iranian threat as a meaningful threat – it is reasonable he would take various measures, including this one. Israel has been blessed with being a state rich in top level high-tech. These tools that we take pride in open up various possibilities for us."<sup>15 16</sup>
