SWINE FLU & THE DEPOPULATION AGENDA – PART I

“There will be mighty and violent earthquakes, and in various places famines and pestilences (plagues: malignant and contagious or infectious epidemic diseases which are deadly and devastating); and there will be sights of terror and great signs from heaven.” (Luke 21:11) (Amplified Bible)

Something is going on. Warnings abound that we are on the edge of a major worldwide pandemic from the Swine Flu and nations are gearing up to deal with the threat. But there seems to be something more going on here than meets the eye, - at least at first glance. Warning bells have been sounded over the danger of the virus, over the vaccine itself, and over its connection to an agenda that is so much darker and more sinister than our rational minds will often let us go. Over the course of the next several weeks – (and perhaps not even consecutively) – we will examine the evidence and try to get some sense of just what is going on.

THE ALARM

It's not exactly panic, but the warnings are everywhere. The Center for Disease Control (CDC), - the government's health arm, - expects that about 40% of Americans will come down with the Swine Flu, - the H1N1 virus, sometime this year. According to their figures it has already struck about 1 million, - with 300 of those cases ending in death.<sup>1</sup> Britain has seen about 100,000 cases, - with an explosion of infections in those under 14. The World Health Organization's (WHO) chief flu expert estimated that about 2 billion would be infected across the globe.<sup>2</sup> About 160 Brits have been quarantined overseas.<sup>3</sup> And in a harbinger of a possible economic effect, a headline in the Las Vegas Sun tells business to “prepare now for fall flu”.<sup>4</sup> It would seem the WHO is feeding the frenzy. Instead of having health officials in the various countries investigate and confirm cases, it is recommending that when provided with symptoms, they just ‘assume’ it is the H1N1 virus, - even over the phone. Such steps of course will only inflate the number of reported cases and build momentum for massive inoculation programs, - which seems to be part of many governments' agendas anyhow.<sup>5</sup> Britain's Health Secretary is pushing that same line, warning that “there could be 100,000 new cases a day” occurring in that country by the end of August. London hopes to have 60 million doses of the vaccine available by the end of this year.<sup>6</sup>

That has been the general reaction. Governments across Europe are gearing up to inoculate their populations before the onset of winter. The European Medicines Agency, - an arm of the EU, - is speeding up the approval process for a vaccine. Britain, France, Greece and Sweden are countries that may start the vaccination process within weeks, - without significant testing for the side effects which may result.<sup>7</sup> Targeted testing will begin at universities and clinics within the US on or about August 10th.<sup>8</sup> As part of that testing about 12,000 American children will take part in studies of the experimental vaccine which contains the ingredient squalene. Squalene has been linked by numerous peer reviewed studies to autoimmune diseases that have collectively been called ‘Gulf War Syndrome’.<sup>9</sup> The government sponsored mass vaccination for the Swine Flu back in the 70's produced 30 deaths and 500 cases of a paralysis called Guillain-Barre syndrome. Perhaps more frightening than the dangers themselves is the fact that there are some in power who believe that government should and does have the power to force the issue. Mandatory mass vaccinations are deemed ‘constitutional’ by the Arkansas State Health Department, for instance.<sup>10</sup>

So it is with all that in mind, that the words of the Assistant Secretary of Housing in the administration of President Bush Sr hold special interest. When not in government, Catherine Austin Fitts, is by trade a “portfolio strategist used to looking at numbers from a very high level”. Over years of study, - both in and out of government, Ms Fitts came to the conclusion that at the highest levels, - a choice was being programmed into the ‘system’. There would have to be “radical change in how we governed resources or depopulate”. She claims she was not alone in this conclusion. In 1999 she was joined by a Wall Street colleague. And way back in 1994, British billionaire, Sir James Goldsmith was warning of this systemic prejudice being built into the international model through the likes of GATT and Free Trade that could result in the displacement of 2 billion people, - possibly turning even that many into de-facto refugees. Here is the verdict of Sir James: “This is the establishment against the rest of society”.

Looking at what has occurred just since last September, Catherine Austin Fitts draws it together thus. The “expense and corruption of empire resulted in bailouts of $12-14 trillion, delivering a new financial war chest to the people leading the financial engineering. Now we have exploding unemployment, an exploding federal deficit,” and a safety net we can no longer afford. ““That is, unless you change the actuarial assumptions in the budget – like life expectancy. Lowering immune systems and increasing toxicity levels combined with poor food, water and terrorizing stress will help do the trick... a plague can so frighten and help control people that they will accept the end of their current benefits (and the resulting implications to life expectancy) without objection. And a plague with proper planning can be highly profitable... control opportunities are profound.” Yeah, this sounds like crazy talk and we wouldn’t listen for a moment... if not for the consideration of just who was saying this stuff, - and the accumulating evidence of ...well something amiss, - and even she know this must sound a little crazy. Here is her disclaimer. “It is just what I believe, listening to the people I respect, and in no small part because if you map out all the financial ecosystems around the issue and people and incentives involved, it seems to me to be the logical conclusion.”<sup>11 12</sup> And she is not alone in those conclusions!

Now we’ve only just brushed the surface of where this might be going. Next week we’ll continue to evaluate the evidence and talk about what even some of the mainstream press is reporting as the inherent dangers in the plan to inoculate hundreds of millions and we will start to explore the very questionable connections to Big Pharma and a possible Illuminati agenda.

THE PHARISEES, KABALA & THE END TIMES REBELLION – PART III

When I discovered the nature of the struggle between Jesus and the Pharisees it was an exciting and great revelation. All of history of course has a purpose. Fueled by Satan, this monumental battle was just a part of mankind’s rebellion against God. It will only end when Christ returns and takes control of this earth; - as the rightful Judge & King & Savior.

IN THE SPIRIT OF ANTICHRIST

“By this you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, and every spirit that does not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God. And this is the spirit of the Antichrist, which you have heard was coming, and is now already in the world.” (1John 4:2-3)

Now, comprehending the nature of the struggle between the Pharisees and the Son of God, it becomes easier to understand Jesus' words of condemnation found in the eighth chapter of John's Gospel. Recall that he told them, "You are of your father the devil". (John 8:44) It is there we find that Christ draws a clear distinction between the world system, - Satan's Kingdom, on the one hand; - and the Kingdom of God on the other. After all this is a struggle that actually began in the Garden, was joined in earnest in Babel, - worked through the pagan systems of Babylon, Egypt and the Middle East, - and proliferated around the world. It finds its expression in the religions of the East, the cults, Islam, Mormonism, among the Jehovah's Witnesses, in Kabbalah and Freemasonry and the Secret Societies. It lives today in the New Age attempt to bring forth the next one to bear the 'christ consciousness'.

Let's understand the nature of the 'Beast' that lies on the other end of this struggle. If you recall, the knowledge provided by the Kabbalah, for instance was divided into two parts; - earthly and spiritual. As we look through history we can find increasing evidence that practical knowledge in the arts and sciences, were it seems, passed down through the secret societies with their ties to the occult. Alan Alford, author of When The Gods Came Down, is among many that build the case that "there is plentiful evidence of an esoteric belief system flowing down through secret societies during the last two thousand years".<sup>13</sup> A report in Cutting Edge Ministries reports how the revelation of very specific and advanced knowledge is passed on via the occult secret societies. These include advances in the areas of astronomy, physics, medicine, mathematics, the arts and even psychic capabilities. At least that's the teaching of the occultists. It is no secret that many of the greatest scientific minds through the ages have been intimately acquainted with the occult. Marcel Vogel, a key inventor of IBM computers claims he got his inspiration from a psychic dream. It is interesting to note that Vogel went on to found Psychic Research Inc. While working on configuring crystals he "saw in a vision a shape that he later discovered was the Kabbalistic Tree of Life", - from which he developed a "Kabbalistic Tree of Life Crystal Healing Wand".<sup>14</sup> The founders of Apple Computers are said to be tied to the Theosophical mindset.<sup>15</sup> Thomas Edison himself is known to have extensive ties to the House of Theosophy.<sup>16</sup> Others dabbling in similar studies include Henry Ford, Alexander Graham Bell and Albert Einstein.<sup>17</sup> To take this farther, there are rumored connections to a possible connection with an 'alien' / demon / Nephilim presence that is providing all of this incredibly sophisticated knowledge.

So this is a struggle that has gone on from the dawn of man. And Jesus, when he faced off against the Pharisees, understood that they were acting as agents of Satan in this War of the Ages. With this in mind let's look at Jesus' confrontation with the Pharisees as described in John's Gospel. Jesus had just been talking about His intimacy with the Father. But they are (probably purposely) not getting it. "Then they said to Him, 'Where is Your Father?'". So Jesus tells them. "You know neither Me nor My Father. If you had known Me, you would have known My Father also." (John 8:19) He was drawing a clear distinction between their vision and His; - between man's kingdom and God's.

Yet He offered them freedom. "If you abide in My word, you are My disciples indeed. And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." (John 8:31-32) But they could not see their bondage, so they pleaded the fact to Him that they were descendants of Abraham. But he tells them that they are slaves of sin. He goes on. "I know that you are Abraham's descendants, but you seek to kill Me, because My word has no place in you. I speak what I have seen with My Father, and you do what you have seen with your father." (John 8:37-38) Now He was making their condition clearer. They were plotting to kill Him, so He told them, "You do the deeds of your father". (v 41) They protested: "We were not born of fornication; we have one Father—God." Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love

Me, for I proceeded forth and came from God; nor have I come of Myself, but He sent Me. Why do you not understand My speech? Because you are not able to listen to My word. You are of your father the devil, and the desires of your father you want to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own resources, for he is a liar and the father of it. But because I tell the truth, you do not believe Me.”

(John 8:41-45)

The Pharisees were just what Christ said they were; operatives of the Satanic Party. They had chosen their rebellion. It is the same with the great movement that exists today to set their own pretender on the throne of the Messiah King. The Prince of this world has blinded the eyes of those in rebellion. Still they also do not seek to hear or know or follow the truth. Instead they serve themselves and their own rebellious ways. The amazing thing is that we can now see that Christ's struggle and our struggle with the Antichrist are one and the same. We fight the same foe; - an enemy that refuses to recognize the Messiah / Son, - or honor the Father. Their rebellion has made them blind to the ways of God and deaf to His words. As Jesus told the Pharisees: “He who is of God hears God's word's; therefore you do not hear, because you are not of God”.(Jn 8:47)

FAST & FURIOUS

A SPIRIT OF DARKNESS: - “And when He arrived at the other side in the country of the Gadarenes, two men under the control of demons went to meet Him, coming out of the tombs, so fierce and savage that no one was able to pass that way. And behold, they shrieked and screamed, What have You to do with us, Jesus, Son of God?” (Matthew 8:28-29) A 33 year old mother murdered, dismembered, and ate parts of her 3 ½ week old son, including his brain. She then turned the knife on herself stabbing herself in the torso and throat. She told police that she was “hearing voices” and that she killed her son in response to a command from the Devil. When she was arrested she was screaming, “I killed my baby. I want to die.”<sup>18 19</sup>

BEYOND BELIEF: - Now get this. This was sponsored by a church, no less. It was reported in the Times of London and was an event put on by the Metropolitan Community Church, - an organization known for its support of the Scripture-denying radical gay agenda. To understand just how far out there they've gone, here's a quote asserting the Bible's approval of homosexuality, found in an article entitled: Homosexuality: Not A Sin, Not A Sickness. It can be found on the Church's official website. “The Good News is that, since 1968, when Metropolitan Community Church was founded, the emergence of a strong lesbian and gay community, and the conclusions of new scientific studies on homosexuality have forced the Christian Church to reexamine these issues.” Ok, that's the background. Now here's the latest. In Glasgow, Scotland, they've sponsored an exhibit entitled: Made in God's Image, in which they invite the public to participate. “If you feel you have been excluded from the Bible, please write your way back into it.” Part of the exhibit included a video showing a woman ripping pages from the Bible and stuffing them into her bra. The public response has encouraged the defacement of Scripture. Here's one paragraph from the Times of London story. “One writer has altered the first line of the Old Testament from ‘In the beginning God created Heaven and Earth’ to ‘In the beginning, God (me) I created religion.’ Another has written ‘The Gospel According to Luke Skywalker’. The main sentiment, however, is rage at Christianity. “F*** the Bible”, one message says.”<sup>20 21</sup> I pray with Jesus on the Cross: “Father forgive them, for they do not know what they do”. (Luke 23:34)
