UKRAINE...WHAT IT IS AIN'T EXACTLY CLEAR

There's something happening...in the Ukraine. One publication describes it thus. "The entire nation of Ukraine is in an absolute state of panic as a mystery illness rips through their country."¹ British scientists were on the scene by early November, examining samples to determine if the virus had mutated. Ukrainian President Viktor Yushchenko was warning back then that three separate viruses were present in the population and that there were worries that they would mutate into "an even more aggressive virus."² And it seemed that's exactly what happened. The UK's Daily Express described the emerging threat as a "cocktail of three viruses" that have "mutated into a single pneumonic plague...more dangerous than the swine flu."³ By mid-November it was being reported that the new illness had struck 1.25 million, putting 65,000 in hospital. Mortality figures at that point varied from 189 to a full 11% of the hospitalized, - or over 6,000. The new strain attacks the lungs directly turning some victims lungs "as black as charcoal...like they have been burned." Now the panic that has hit the Ukraine is starting to spread. The neighboring country of Belarus may have already been infected with the new virus. Serbia, Bulgaria and certain regions of Russia are experiencing or are on the verge of epidemics. Significant increases in infections were reported in Norway, India, and even as far away as Canada.^{4 5} But the story really starts to get strange when we consider just what may have caused the mutation.

I saw the reports when they came out. It was a little too 'X-Files' to wrap my mind around at first. It seems that on October 30th, numerous reports began surfacing that small aircraft and helicopters were spraying an "aerosolized medication" over Kiev and other major cities in the country to combat the H1N1 virus. Local businessmen in the capital were reporting that they were told by authorities to "stay indoors" during the spraying. The government denied that this was even happening. But local Kiev papers received hundreds of phone calls, and online forums were filled with 'eye-witness accounts' of the events. What is stranger still is the fact that the spraying occurred just days before the new illness, described as pneumonic plague, broke out.^{6 7}

Not strange enough yet? Well add in a couple of more facts. Reports began to surface via South Africa's FTO that American-manned Ukrainian planes were over the course of the summer, variously forced down first by Indian and then Nigerian fighters. These craft were outfitted with systems that could spray up to 100,000 lbs of mist. And that this fact had some Chinese officials believing that the object was to spread the swine flu in some sort of attempt at mass genocide. While those reports were unconfirmed, other facts were more fully substantiated. As this newsletter reported, Baxter International had been caught shipping 72 kilos of live Bird Flu viruses to labs throughout Europe. These were to be distributed as part of a vaccine. It was only through God's providence that the 'mistake' was discovered by a Czech lab. Then there's the case of the Israeli microbiologist and Mossad agent, Joseph Moshe. He believed he was on to something. In the middle of August he called a national radio talk show hosted by Dr A True Ott to allege that Baxter was preparing to "release a deadly plague from its Ukrainian lab". Sound like crazy talk, from someone who would eventually be taken away to a padded room. But he somehow set up a meeting with US attorneys in LA. Shortly afterward he was arrested and taken to the Israeli consulate. He has since disappeared.⁸

What all of this means "ain't exactly clear." But leaked documents from the last G-20 Conference reportedly reveal that the participants spent a good deal of time talking about how to achieve "population reduction goals."⁹ As crazy as that may seem to some - (and to myself not long ago) - I now believe that there is something more at work here. It wasn't that long ago that this publication ran a series called Swine Flu & The Depopulation Agenda. In that series we illustrated the existence of a cadre of the elite, dedicated to engineering the reduction of the global population by anywhere from one-third to 90%. Henry Kissinger said, "World population needs to be decreased by 50%. Kissinger, who pretty much ran the Nixon and Ford White Houses - and is a key member of the Illuminati through his Rockefeller, Bildeberg, CFR and Trilateralist connections, - further said "The elderly are useless eaters" and "Depopulation should be the highest priority of foreign policy towards the third world, because the US economy will require large and increasing amounts of minerals from abroad, especially from less developed countries". Another world leader, Mikhail Gorbachev, the former head of the Soviet Union; - a devotee of the occult beliefs of the most radical forms of environmentalism, - has said, "Cut the population by 90% and there aren't enough people left to do a great deal of ecological damage".¹⁰

We must understand that the notion of radical population reduction had definitely become part of a religious creed. New Ager Matthew Fox, who is looking for the coming of a "Cosmic Christ" asks the question whether "...the human species should be allowed to continue on this planet?". And Robert Muller, former Assistant Secretary General of the UN and supporter of the United Religious Initiative publicly celebrates the fact that the UN has prevented 2.2 billion births.¹¹ It is just that unification of the political with the religious and economic that drives this movement. The UN and the World Health Organization have been integral parts of that drive as have globalist organizations like our friends at the Club of Rome. In one interesting tie, Lucis Trust, - which started as the Lucifer Publishing Company, - an arm of the House of Theosophy, - has an official presence at the UN. As for the Club of Rome, they are clear that they support “a new world economic order and a global resources allocation system”. In 1980, one scientist member of the ‘Club’ called for the US to “cut its population by two-thirds within the next 50 years”. Another report called Global Future, advocated a program of contraception, abortion and sterilization. Then in 1982, another presidential report; - Global 2000: Blueprint for Genocide was published. It stated that the policies it advocated “are correctly understood as political statements of intent- the intent on the part of such policy centers as the Council on Foreign Relations, the Trilateral Commission, and the International Monetary Fund, to pursue policies that will result not only in the death of the 120 million cited in the reports, but in the death of upwards of two billion people by the year 2000”.¹²

The International Medical Veritas Association warns of the danger in both the medical and political spheres. “Plague may be rare today in the United States” but the medical community must “be aware of its potential as a weapon.” They warn that the epidemic striking Eastern Europe will likely spread throughout the world. What we see today may be the testing ground for a future biological assault by the governing powers against the bulk of humanity. Here is their conclusion. “What we are seeing is the leading edge of world government.”¹³Perhaps so!

IRAN, ISRAEL & THE NEXT PROPHETIC WAR – Part VI

Last time out we detailed the Gog / Magog invasion of Turkey, Iran and (in the eyes of many) Russia against the Land of Israel, - God’s Land. What follows is a time of revelation to the nations, as they see God’s will come to pass, despite the plans of man.

The Fury Of The Lord !

“Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say to Gog, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “On that day when My people Israel dwell safely, will you not know it? Then you will come from your place out of the far north, you and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great company and a mighty army. You will come up against My people Israel like a cloud, to cover the land. It will be in the latter days that I will bring you against My land, so that the nations may know Me, when I am hallowed in you, O Gog, before their eyes....And it will come to pass at the same time, when Gog comes against the land of Israel,” says the Lord GOD, “that My fury will show in My face. For in My jealousy and in the fire of My wrath I have spoken: ‘Surely in that day there shall be a great earthquake in the land of Israel, so that the fish of the sea, the birds of the heavens, the beasts of the field, all creeping things that creep on the earth, and all men who are on the face of the earth shall shake at My presence. The mountains shall be thrown down, the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground.’ I will call for a sword against Gog throughout all My mountains,” says the Lord GOD. “Every man’s sword will be against his brother. And I will bring him to judgment with pestilence and bloodshed; I will rain down on him, on his troops, and on the many peoples who are with him, flooding rain, great hailstones, fire, and brimstone. Thus I will magnify Myself and sanctify Myself, and I will be known in the eyes of many nations. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.”’ (Ezekiel 38:14-16, 18-23)

God is a God of history! He harnesses the purposes of men, the nations and historical forces to achieve His purposes. That confederation of Muslim nations, led by Russia or Turkey and allied with Iran, will come against God’s people. Israel will be living in peace, confident of their security, having just defeated another coalition that includes the Palestinians, Syria, Jordan, and likely Egypt. These second invaders swarm into Israel from the north, - so numerous that they are “like a cloud to cover the land”. They come confident of victory. The other world powers react with lame protest, - mere words. The invaders are acting in defiance of God. But in fact they are accomplishing God’s purposes. In Ezekiel 38:16 God reveals that “I will bring you against My land, so that the nations may know me”. Two verses later God promises that this invasion will only cause His “hot anger [to] be aroused”. God is bringing His promises to fulfillment for one reason alone: “For My holy name’s sake”. (Ezek.36:22) In Ezek. 36:23, He states His purpose clearly. “I will sanctify My great name, which has been profaned among the nations, which you have profaned in their midst; and the nations shall know that I am the Lord.”

In Ezekiel 38, quoted above we see the outlines of God’s righteous judgment. Verse 19 tells of a great earthquake in Israel, whose aftershocks may be felt around the globe. Whatever the form, God’s judgment will cause the invading armies to fight among themselves. Next, Ezekiel describes a scene of pestilence, bloodshed, flood hailstones, fire and brimstone. Some see this as referring to the affects of a nuclear attack.¹⁴ Ezekiel 39:3 goes on. “Then I will knock the bow out of your left hand, and cause the arrow to fall out of your right hand.” Missler and Lindsey believe this passage could just be Ezekiel’s attempt to describe missiles and launchers in ancient terms. In any case the invading forces are disarmed. The affect of God's fury on the invaders is complete destruction. Ezekiel 39:4-5 gives the scene. "You shall fall upon the mountains of Israel, you and all your troops and the peoples who are with you; I will give you to birds of prey of every sort and to the beasts of the field to be devoured. You shall fall on the open field: for I have spoken," says the Lord God."

So the armies of Magog, (Russia or Turkey) and her allies are destroyed in the invasion. And then there is this: "And I will send fire on Magog and on those who live in security in the coastlands. Then they shall know that I am the Lord". (Ezekiel 39:6) The passage seems to be saying that Magog (Russia / Turkey) itself will be the subject of catastrophic attack. But to what does "the coastlands" refer? The King James translation perhaps sheds some light on the matter. "And I will send a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell carelessly in the isles". Commentators believe that the terms "isles" should be seen as continents. "Dwell carelessly", is an interesting phrase, in that it suggests perhaps a neutral people, - unconcerned with the invasion of Israel. Remember "Sheba, Dedan, the merchants of Tarshish, and all their young lions" (Ezek. 38:13)! We saw how that passage spoke of Saudi Arabia and perhaps the English speaking nations of the US, Canada and Australia, or possibly Western Europe. When the invasion comes, these may be the countries that merely protest, - anxious to maintain the false peace and their 'careless' lifestyle. Lindsey and Missler think that that Ezekiel may be describing an "intercontinental nuclear exchange".¹⁵ Yet through this time of horrible war, God's purposes are fulfilled. "So I will make My holy name known in the midst of My people Israel...Then the nations shall know that I am the Lord". (Ezekiel 39:7)

The verses following in Ezekiel 39 describe an amazing scene. The language of this ancient prophecy is very technologically precise in describing what follows. In verses 9-11, Ezekiel tells how the victorious Israelis will use the now captured equipment of the invaders, as fuel for seven years. Lindsey and Missler rely on official US Government documents to point out that 7-years is the very shelf life of current soviet nuclear technology.¹⁶ Verse 11, goes on to tell us that the burial ground will be off-limits to travelers. Nuclear contamination, perhaps? The chapter continues, describing a seven-month long time of burial, followed by the use of what can only be seen as a professional force to deal with the radioactive material. "They will set apart men regularly employed, with the help of a search party, to pass through the land and bury those bodies remaining on the ground, in order to cleanse it....and when anyone sees a man's bone, he shall set up a marker by it, until buriers have buried it". (Ezekiel 39: 14-15) Again, Lindsey and Missler point out that this is "remarkably consistent" with current Department of Defense procedures for dealing with nuclear contamination.¹⁷ Now how did God know that?

When will these things come to pass? As with all prophecy yet to be fulfilled, there is some controversy with the timing. Some scholars are of the school that holds that the Gog-Magog War will precede and set up the rule of Antichrist. Jennifer Rast of Contender Ministries, states categorically that the invasion "...will pave the way for the Antichrist's military rule....With Islam defeated," [in the first war against Syria], "and the church raptured", a power vacuum would exist that would pave the way for the ascendance of the "man of sin".¹⁸ While Missler, Grant Jeffries and Chuck Smith, consider this theory a possibility, the common view, supported by Lindsey's Late Great Planet Earth,¹⁹ is that these events are part of the "sequence of events which climax in" Armageddon. Though Man cannot be certain of the timing, God has declared the event. "Surely it is coming, and it shall be done," says the Lord God. This is the day of which I have spoken". (Ezekiel 39:8)

TERROR ON THE RISE

The news broke back on November 13th. The US was going to go after the Alavi Foundation by beginning legal action to seize 4 mosques and a 36 story New York office building. Alavi, which presents itself as a charity, is linked to the Iranian government and has been involved in funneling millions of dollars back to Tehran. The move was described by the BBC as "one of the biggest counter-terrorism seizures in US history."²⁰ According to the New York Post, Alavi is also involved in funneling hundreds of thousands of dollars to Rutgers and Columbia for Middle Eastern Studies programs that employ anti-Israeli professors. In addition they've been implicated in helping to finance an Iranian spy network operating in Europe.²¹ The move was just the latest in a flurry of activity by the US government designed to thwart a rash of new and developing terror threats. In the recent past – since the onset of the Obama administration – some of the anti-terror activity has been to say the least – misdirected. If you recall earlier this year, the Homeland Security Department under Janet Napolitano was warning against "right-wing extremists" who supported the Constitution and American sovereignty and the right to bear arms and Ron Paul, - or opposed abortion and illegal immigration. The government was even advising that we look out for soldiers returning from the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan. That confused thinking was reflected in the initial reluctance among media and government sources to even mention the Fort Hood shooters links to Islam.²² Now that couldn't possibly be terror. Not that nice young officer with self-expressed jihadist tendencies!

But despite any misgivings by the White House or the main stream media, the terror threat inside the US has been growing – and our anti-terror forces have been moving on targets as they identify them. It's true that the American heartland has seen a relatively lower level of jihadist activity than say Europe or parts of Asia since the 911 attacks. But that's changing now. Terror networks are operating in Pakistan and Afghanistan and India and according to Israeli President Peres; - Hezbollah has even set up shop in South America.²³ And judging from activity by the American intelligence networks, especially the FBI, - it's exploding in the US too.²⁴ Here's a catalogue of what's been happening since the beginning of the year.

- February 2009 - Afghan national Najibullah Zazi is arrested by the FBI. Zazi had ties to the Taliban, al-Qaeda and specifically bin Laden's security unit, the Black Guard.
- March 2009 - Twenty Somali-Americans from Minneapolis went back to Somalia. It is documented that many have joined and are fighting with an al-Qaeda linked terror group there.
- May 2009 - Four men are arrested after planting explosives outside a New York City synagogue. They were also charged with conspiracy to acquire an anti-aircraft missile. They were planning jihad.
- July 2009 - Seven North Carolina men are arrested for plotting terror attacks against Pakistan and Israel. One, Daniel Boyd was quoted as saying, "I love jihad. I love to stand there and fight for the sake of Allah."
- September 2009 - The FBI raids several residences in Queens, NY. In Dallas, a man was arrested as he tried to blow up a skyscraper with a car bomb. In Springfield Illinois another man was arrested trying to use a car bomb against a Federal Courthouse.
- October 2009 - Two men were picked up in Chicago as they plotted to attack the Danish newspaper that published the Mohammed cartoons that set the Islamic world into a riotous frenzy. A Boston man was indicted for plotting terror attacks. In Queens again, two men were arrested for plotting to provide Hezbollah with ammo, arms, vehicles and body armor. In Detroit, the leader of a mosque opened fire on FBI agents, and was killed in the exchange. The Feds picked up ten other members of 'The Ummah' or 'Brotherhood' connected with the case. The Brotherhood seeks to set up a separate Islamic state in the US based on sharia law.²⁵

YADAS

Prophetic Reveille - Here's one that will wake up any half-way serious student of Bible prophecy. The EU, long considered to be the Revived Roman Empire talked about by the prophet Daniel, elected a president, Herman Van Rompuy of Belgium. [Now whether you ascribe to the theory that Rome will be one of the ten toes of a global Antichrist empire or both feet, - that's important news.] Even more important is what he said. "2009 is also the first year of global governance, with the establishment of the G20 in the middle of the financial crisis. The climate conference in Copenhagen is another step towards the global management of our planet." Earlier he had called for European wide taxes, announced at a dinner meeting of the Bilderbergs, - whose meeting he frequented along with those of the globalist Trilateral Commission.²⁶ It's all about World Government, baby!

Fixing The Data - Global warming advocates - especially those that believe the questionable phenomenon is man made - got caught with their pants down. A large number of files belonging to the Climatic Research Unit were hacked and posted on the internet. The files, admittedly belonging to the institution based at East Anglia University in England, revealed numerous, repeated instances of collusion between scientists to doctor the evidence in order to promote the models that support man-made global warning. These came from some of the leading climatologists in the field. That theory is what is behind the attempt to impose a carbon credit system on the planet. Such a move would drive up the cost of energy substantially, while increasing national and international government control of the minutiae of everyday life. The over 1,000 e-mails and 3,000 other documents reveal a pattern of suppressing, altering and destroying inconvenient data.^{27 28 29}

On The Israeli Front - Iran began a 5-day drill to practice protecting the skies over their nuclear facilities from Israeli air strikes. Early returns: A big goose egg! According to the war games, Iran would be unable to protect itself from the IAF. An attack would succeed in destroying their atomic installations "in the first hours of an attack".³⁰ Tehran warned that it would respond by striking "the heart of Tel Aviv".³¹ Does the Iranian failure mean that Netanyahu is more likely to give the 'go' signal?

The Real Deal - CNBC is reporting that the "Real" unemployment rate is actually 17.5%. Now that's a scary number!³²
