ESCALATION

The always simmering Arab / Israeli tensions have ratcheted up a bit recently driven by the actions of the Syrians. Damascus has seen fit to supply the terror group Hezbollah with Scud missiles that in the words of one Arab paper, “is threatening to ignite an all-out war between Israel and Hizbullah.” The action was considered serious enough to cause the US State Department to summon the Syrian ambassador. For its part, Israel immediately sent word via Turkey and Qatar “that it would ‘bomb Lebanese and Syrian targets’” should the missiles actually reach Hezbollah.<sup>1</sup> The Times of London reports that the “secret warning” delivered by the Israelis was very serious. They now view Hezbollah “as a division of the Syrian Army.” So any attack would be answered by reprisals that are, in the words of the Times, “fast and devastating.” As one Israeli cabinet minister put it, “We’ll return Syria to the Stone Age by crippling its power stations, ports, fuel storage and every bit of strategic infrastructure if Hezbollah dare to launch ballistic missiles against us.” The government in Jerusalem is taking this all very seriously. Earlier, Foreign Minister Avigdor Lieberman had warned Syrian President Assad that he and his family would not only lose the war, but lose power, should war break out again with Israel. Damascus has been doing some saber rattling as of late, insisting that the Golan must be returned to Syrian control.<sup>2</sup>

The fact is, the new and improved Hezbollah forces are raising tensions to the point that many believe that war will break out before the end of the summer. As DEBKA would have it, it is all part of a “master plan” worked up by the Syrians and Iranians. Besides long range ballistic offensive missiles, Syria has recently provided Hezbollah with a modernized, advanced anti-aircraft system. The terror group is fast becoming a modern army, training to seize parts of Israel’s Galilee region and to take out tanks, planes and warships.<sup>3</sup> One Israeli minister called the coming conflict, “just a matter of time.” The last action between the two was in the summer of 2006. And while Israel destroyed much of the infrastructure of southern Lebanon in the process, they did not win the decisive victory that they had become used to in other wars. In the process, over 4,000 missiles were fired into Israel. This time Jerusalem is warning it will not hold back and accept a virtual draw. Israel is preparing to be “taking the gloves off” in the next go round. But so is Hezbollah. Their leader, Hassan Nasrallah has warned, “If you hit our ports, we will hit your ports.”<sup>4</sup> The Arabs are beginning to believe that they can match up with the IDF.

So what does all this mean prophetically? As I cover in detail in my book, The History of The Future, the next prophetic war on the horizon is the Psalm 83 War. This will be a war of the inner ring of Arab states against Israel. During its course, the Arabs will be soundly defeated. It is the prophetic conflict that will precede the Gog / Magog invasion of Israel by Iran, Turkey, (possibly Russia) and an outer ring of Islamic states that is described in Ezekiel 38. Bill Salus, a pioneer of this view, cuts to the point: “Syria, Hezbollah, and Hamas appear to be identified in Psalm 83.” That makes these developments extremely significant prophetically.

Now these groups have agreed to support each other in any future conflict with the Jewish state. In addition, King Abdullah of Jordan has begun to openly express his dissatisfaction with his nation’s peace agreement with Israel. And there are other signs of impending war. The government in Jerusalem is fitting the population for gas masks in anticipation of chemical attacks. The Israelis believe that such weapons might be used by Hezbollah, Syria, Hamas or even Iran. Jerusalem is renovating bomb shelters. You see, the military equation has changed. Jerusalem, Tel Aviv and the Israeli nuclear plant in Dimona are all in range of Arab missile attacks. Hezbollah's arsenal alone is believed to hold as many as 40,000 missiles and rockets, with 13,000 being aimed at any given time.<sup>5</sup>

But the forming Psalm 83 confederation is only one danger facing Israel right now. The other, is of course, the looming menace of a nuclear Iran. As Iran gets measurably closer to being able to produce their own nukes – (they have likely purchased some 'off the shelf' from former Soviet republics) – Israel is getting more serious about dealing with the issue. The US, meanwhile, continues to dither and stumble about ineffectively seeking workable sanctions. As many observers have pointed out, it seems likely that the US under President Obama is coming to accept the idea of a nuclear capable Iran. But Israel cannot afford that luxury. Back in January 2010, the head of Israeli military intelligence said that he believed that Iran would be able to produce a nuclear weapon later this year. Released footage of F15s practicing in-flight refueling “was a warning not to Iran but to the Americans that we're serious.”<sup>6</sup> What the Israeli's really need is for the US to step in and do – massively & well – what Israel can only do on a limited basis, with much difficulty. Up to now however, the administration has only offered empty assurances. Now the revelation of a secret memo from Defense Secretary Robert Gates has put into question America's willingness to do the heavy lifting on Iran. There is no effective policy in place to stop Iran. Realizing what this will likely result in, a nuclear Iran, Gates goes on to question what the strategy should be once Iran has the bomb. An even greater danger than a bomb controlled by Ahmadinejad and the Mullah's is the prospect of a weapon getting into the hands of one of their terrorist allies.<sup>7</sup> That's why the assessment of former Deputy Defense Minister Ephraim Sneh hold such credence. He says that unless the game completely changes, Israel will be forced to act by November of this year. He believes the government should be ready and willing to accept the trade-off that would entail. “An Israeli military campaign against Iran's nuclear installations is likely to cripple that country's nuclear project for a number of years. The retaliation against Israel would be painful, but bearable.”<sup>8</sup>

All in all, that's a frightening bargain. But no matter which way it goes, we are likely headed toward prophetic fulfillment in the not too distant future. Those who have been following our series CONSPIRACIES & REALITIES, will recognize that we are operating in familiar territory. The conflict that is looming in the Middle East is just the same as the one that the Illuminati and PTB are planning to use as the trigger war for the coming chaos. According to the revealed plan, that Middle East conflict – which is to involve Iran and Israel – is to feature the use of nuclear weapons. So it is more than interesting that DEBKA, the Israeli military and intelligence news site, featured an article that highlighted the conviction among many military experts that Israel would resort to using tactical nukes to destroy the Iranian nuclear sites. According to a recent report, “nuclear weapons are the only weapons that can destroy targets deep underground or in tunnels.” Instead of facing the problems of long range airstrikes, the Israelis could use ground launched ballistic or sub launched cruise missiles to take out the targets while avoiding the modernized Iranian air defenses.<sup>9</sup> And so the natural demands of the situation serve to play into the intricate schemes of the elites. The situation is prophetically pregnant. Prophecy expert Bill Salus puts it this way. “These prophecies are scheduled to occur soon and sequentially each building upon the other. According to scripture the aftermath of these wars will lead to a one world order, construction of a third Jewish Temple, and the arrival of Antichrist.”

CONSPIRACIES & REALITIES – PART VIII

This has been a longer journey than expected. In the last several installments, longtime readers have looked again at the revealed plans of the Illuminati types. If you go all the way back to the beginning of this series, you will recall where it all began: A retired British military man and current player in world of international finance based in the City of London (called W), revealed a plan by the Powers That Be (PTB), - to bring about World War Three. In the end, we found that it dovetails quite nicely with plans revealed earlier by the likes of Peter Lemesurier and others.

TYING IT ALL TOGETHER

What was ultimately compelling about W's story of a purposeful chaos, created by the PTB, was the way it lined up so precisely with the plans revealed by Lemesurier's Armageddon Script and other New Age sources. Lemesurier's plan, published in 1980, called for the controlled chaos to begin with an Arab / Israeli War. It goes on to detail WMD terror against cities in Europe and possibly America, a nuclear crisis on the Korean Peninsula, a Chinese invasion of Taiwan, some sort of (real, demonic or contrived) Extraterrestrial presence, a stock market crash and earthquakes around the world. All of this taken together is calibrated to degrade the organization and psyche of the planet to the point where the global population will be ready to accept the rise of the New Age Christ. That's the plan!<sup>10</sup>

Let's review what W has laid out for us.

- A Contrived Third World War – to be both nuclear and biological. It's to begin no later than the beginning of 2012.
- War To Begin With a Strike By Either Israel or Iran – In this engineered conflict, Iran or China would be the first to throw nuclear warheads at Israel.
- Martial Law Cometh - Global tensions are to lead to "social and military controls" worldwide.
- False Peace / Bio-War – During a cease fire, the Chinese are to be the targets of 'ethnic specific' bio-weapons. In other words, the microbes will be designed to only take down ethnic Chinese or Orientals. This will eventually spread to the West.
- The Real War Begins – This will lead to a nuclear exchange that is intended to reduce the world's population by half.
- A New World Order - All of this is – again – intended to bring about the chaos that will lead to the PTB establishing full control under the New World Order. <sup>11 12 13</sup>

As you can see, there is an incredible correlation between the two plans. This is something that has been worked across generations. According to W, even the financial crash of 2008 was designed as part of the necessary groundwork. [But let's note what I'm not saying. I'm not saying that World War III will necessarily begin within two years. But that there is evidence that the PTB are working toward that end. And in the end, we can rest assured that the plans of the enemy will only go forward in God's own good time, - according to His will and plan!]

As I was finishing up this series, reports were surfacing that only confirmed its most salient themes. All across the globe economic pressures are eroding not only the financial stability of – but in some cases the very existence of the middle class. The world's governments – themselves tools of the elites – have been preparing for what they see as the natural, reactive violence that will follow. Andrew Marshall looks for the "labour class" to absorb the middle class. Violence will follow once they realize they've lost their "social, political and economic foundations."<sup>14</sup> The bond rating firm, Moody's warned that "social cohesion" will be threatened in the days ahead when the "severity of the crisis will force governments to make painful choices that expose weaknesses in society."<sup>15</sup> So the governments are putting the pieces in place – to deal with social unrest even to the point of declaring martial law. It is their handlers, the elite international cartel that is really calling the shots.

By just reporting on the activities of the Bilderbergs – that gathering of international power brokers – investigative reporter Daniel Estulin has proven very accurate at revealing just what is coming next. His inside sources led him to successfully predict the economic meltdown of 2008. It was that secretive group that was, in the words of Infowars, "creating the conditions for a financial calamity." Jim Tucker, another Bilderberg watchdog outlined the plan for all and sundry. "Bilderberg's ultimate goal remains unchanged. Turn the UN into a world government with 'nation-states' becoming merely geographic references. The European Union is to become a single political entity, followed by the 'American Union' and, finally, the 'Asian-Pacific Union.' The 'American Union' is to include the entire Western Hemisphere, including Cuba and other offshore islands." Now, according to a Prison Planet headline, "Bilderberg To Prolong Global Financial Recession For Another Year." They want to use that time to create a worldwide "treasury department" which would consolidate global financial control "in pursuit of world economic governance." French President Sarkozy recently confirmed this desire openly by calling for a "new global monetary order." At this very moment the PTB are putting the architecture in place.<sup>16 17</sup> Thus the pursuit of the New World Order!

So though the pieces are all falling into place, we must always remember who is ultimately in charge. God is still on His throne. Despite the plans of men and princes, God does still rule in the affairs of men. Psalm 47 tells us "He is a great King over all the earth" (v 2) and "God reigns over nations." (v 8) It is something we are in danger of forgetting. The PTB / International Elite have raised themselves above the very God of the Universe. They have substituted God's Word for their own fleshly agenda, and "exchanged the truth of God for the lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen." (Romans 1:25) They "suppress the truth in unrighteousness...so that they are without excuse." (Romans 1:19-20) No matter how dark it may look, Philippians 2:9-11 assures us of His ultimate triumph. "Therefore God also has highly exalted Him and given Him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and of those under the earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." And here is God's promise to those that belong to Him. "He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High Shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the LORD, 'He is my refuge and my fortress; My God, in Him I will trust.'" (Psalm 91:1-2)

REPENTANCE NOW!

A message to the Church! Recall God's promise for a time such as this. "When I shut up heaven and there is no rain, or command the locusts to devour the land, or send pestilence among My people, if My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land. Now My eyes will be open and My ears attentive to prayer made in this place." (2Chronicles 7:13-15)
