ECONOMICS & REVOLUTION – PART X

Politics makes strange bedfellows and pursuit of power, - curious allies. As we delve into the complicated structures and relationships of the emerging New World Order, we see a process in place that is confusing, patient, consumed with one purpose...and full of inherent contradictions.

INFILTRATION

“For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.” (Ephesians 6:12)

We really don't know what we think we know! Why are the radical left and the ultra-rich allied together in the cause of One World Government? It's a serious question. Dr Henry Makow lays out the case that “Communism was/is a plot designed to substitute a cabal of the rich for the rule of God.”¹ Seeing what we've seen: Is that really so far fetched? What he's proposing, is that: ‘Things are not indeed what they seem’. The world we are living in has been infiltrated and transformed by the manipulations of a powerful elite.

Take for instance Walter Cronkite, the highly respected, iconic former anchor of the CBS Evening News during the 1960's. This father-like figure was so respected at that time as the arbiter of ultimate ‘truth’, - that it was his opinion that the Viet Nam War was unwinnable, - (after an American military victory following the failed Communist Tet Offensive) – that doomed the US war effort in southeast Asia. Mr Cronkite has become one of those points of infiltration. In the days since his retirement, he has become very vocal in leftist causes, one in particular being the promotion of something called World Federalism. He unabashedly promotes the notion of a New World Order through World Government. In 1999, Mr Cronkite received an award from the World Federalist Association. A You Tube video shows Cronkite's remarks at receiving the award. (It also contains a message of approval and congratulations from then First Lady Hillary Clinton.) In his acceptance speech, Cronkite calls for a stronger UN “as a first step toward world government”. America, says he, must be willing to “yield up some of our sovereignty” for the greater good. He went on to endorse the Law of the Seat Treaty, the International Criminal Court and a host of other causes that promote the New World Order. At one point in his talk he ridiculed evangelist Pat Robertson. Robertson had written that the only world government he could give his allegiance to would be that of Messiah, when Jesus returns. Any other would be under the control of Satan. Cronkite laughingly announced that he's “glad to sit at the right hand of Satan”.² And so the icon makes the case for the New Order.

The views and attitudes of a man like Walter Cronkite may seem baffling to many Americans, but these views are making inroads in the American psyche. This is especially so in the younger generation. Many have reflexively come to accept the new way of thinking, that must precede and serve as the foundation for the global transformation. Accidental? Hardly! Recall the plans of the educators that have increasingly controlled our schools since the days of Dewey. Look at the biased media and the subliminal messages of an increasingly amoral culture that promotes a level of tolerance of sin that would be unthinkable even forty years ago. Bella Dodd, was a leader of the Communist Party USA (CPUSA). In her 1954 book, School of Darkness, she argues that Communism as promoted in the US, was but a tool of the financial elite “to control the common man”. While perhaps overstated, as the opinion of one disenchanted with the reality of the cause of her youth, - Dodd's opinion cannot be entirely overlooked. Just like the terror phenomenon, Communism became just another weapon in the elite's arsenal to achieve their ends. Both are real forces, whose trajectory and momentum can be somewhat co-opted in the campaign for global consolidation.

Here is some of what Dodd, the committed revolutionary revealed about the CPUSA. During the 1930's. 'The Party' "had 1,100 members become Catholic priests." In addition they managed to infiltrate the teachers unions. The results can be seen in the hard left turns made by those organizations, - manifesting itself on the grassroots level in the Church and in the upper echelons of education. All of this was about the subversion of American society and the destruction of the Christian / Western culture that existed. The Kremlin archives, - opened after the fall of Communism in Russia, confirmed that the American Communists were but a "puppet of Moscow" and that Senator McCarthy – though portrayed as evil by the American left - was essentially right. That's a fact that has been grudgingly reported (and buried deep inside issues), - but not widely trumpeted by the mainstream press.] The Soviets had managed to place numerous agents in the Roosevelt and Truman administrations, including Alger Hiss, Harry Dexter White, and one of Roosevelt's closest advisors and architects of the New Deal, Harry Hopkins.

The New World Order was to built on the Soviet-American cooperation birthed in WWII; - and it was during that time, - according to Bella Dodd, - that Vanderbilts, Morgans and Rockefeller men were rubbing elbows with Communist leaders in their headquarters located just across the street from the CFR. In the end, Dodd was completely disillusioned by her observations of the close cooperation between the two supposedly opposing forces.³

In this light it is interesting to note then, a listing of the goals the Communists had for this country as entered into the Congressional Record in 1963 by Rep. Albert Herlong Jr of Florida. Rep Herlong revealed 45 in all, but I'll cut the list down a bit in the interest of space. When looking at the list, note just how many have already been achieved or are on their way to fulfillment.

CURRENT COMMUNIST GOALS – (By Rep Herlong's #s, - as entered into the Congressional Record in 1963)

3. Develop the illusion that total disarmament [by] the United States would be a demonstration of moral strength.
4. Permit free trade between all nations regardless of Communist affiliation and regardless of whether or not items could be used for war.
6. Provide American aid to all nations regardless of Communist domination.
7. Grant recognition of Red China. Admission of Red China to the U.N.
11. Promote the U.N. as the only hope for mankind. If its charter is rewritten, demand that it be set up as a one-world government with its own independent armed forces.
15. Capture one or both of the political parties in the United States.
16. Use technical decisions of the courts to weaken basic American institutions by claiming their activities violate civil rights. [The story of the 70's, 80's & 90's]
17. Get control of the schools. Use them as transmission belts for socialism and current Communist propaganda. Soften the curriculum. Get control of teachers' associations. Put the party line in textbooks.
18. Gain control of all student newspapers.
19. Use student riots to foment public protests against programs or organizations which are under Communist attack. (Would happen during the Viet Nam protests later in the 60's)
20. Infiltrate the press. Get control of book-review assignments, editorial writing, policymaking positions.
21. Gain control of key positions in radio, TV, and motion pictures. [Done!]
22. Continue discrediting American culture by degrading all forms of artistic expression. An American Communist cell was told to "eliminate all good sculpture from parks and buildings, substitute shapeless, awkward and meaningless forms." (How about "Piss Christ", that crucifix soaked in urine?)
24. Eliminate all laws governing obscenity by calling them "censorship" and a violation of free speech and free press. (Do I need to comment here?)
25. Break down cultural standards of morality by promoting pornography and obscenity in books, magazines, motion pictures, radio, and TV. [Check!]
26. Present homosexuality, degeneracy and promiscuity as "normal, natural, healthy." [Check!]
27. Infiltrate the churches and replace revealed religion with "social" religion. Discredit the Bible and emphasize the need for intellectual maturity which does not need a "religious crutch." [Going on!]

28. Eliminate prayer or any phase of religious expression in the schools on the ground that it violates the principle of "separation of church and state." [Check!]
30. Discredit the American Founding Fathers. Present them as selfish aristocrats who had no concern for the "common man." [That's the new educational model.]
32. Support any socialist movement to give centralized control over any part of the culture--education, social agencies, welfare programs, mental health clinics, etc.
36. Infiltrate and gain control of more unions.
40. Discredit the family as an institution. Encourage promiscuity and easy divorce.
41. Emphasize the need to raise children away from the negative influence of parents. Attribute prejudices, mental blocks and retarding of children to suppressive influence of parents.
44. Internationalize the Panama Canal. [DONE!]
45. ...Give the World Court jurisdiction over nations and individuals alike. [A soon-coming attraction!]⁴

As you can see, they've done pretty well in the last four decades, achieving or making progress toward their goals. What's remarkable is that the same societal transformation that the Communists sought, served as very effective tools for the Bildebergers and their ilk. What is doubly frightening is that the healthy fear of Communism has been lost to a generation. We now live in an age where an administration can be riddled with admitted Marxists, socialists, Mao-admirers and revolutionaries of various stripes – and yet the American public remains unconcerned. Think I'm exaggerating? Let's recall just a few. There was Van Jones promoting the redistribution of wealth and various revolutionary causes before having to step down after his hard left connections were revealed. Then there is White House Communications Director Anita Dunn. She described Mao as one of her "favorite political philosophers." Perhaps she really admired the way he got things done...by murdering somewhere between 40 million and 60 million people.⁵ A small price to pay! And don't forget Regulatory Czar Cass Sunstein. His writings suggest that rights are not inherent and from God – as the Founders believed – but instead come from government – a uniquely un-American formulation. He is a redistributionist and champions a number of socialist causes in his list of suggested human rights.⁶ This is but a sampling – but proved by the administration's record as it moves to accumulate government power and control at the expense of Constitutional freedom.

But that's where things get so confusing. Is Obama and the current government a tool of an anti-capitalist revolution or the PTB. The answer is both. And that begs the question: So what do the powerful financial elites have in common with the champions of the proletariat that would allow them to share this common ground? That's the very subject we'll tackle next.

BUILDING PALESTINE

“Come near, you nations, to hear; And heed, you people! Let the earth hear, and all that is in it, The world and all things that come forth from it. For the indignation of the LORD is against all nations, And His fury against all their armies....For My sword shall be bathed in heaven; Indeed it shall come down on Edom, And on the people of My curse, for judgment....They shall call its nobles to the kingdom, But none shall be there, and all its princes shall be nothing.” (Isaiah 34:1-2, 5, 12)

Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu met with President Obama at the White House this last week, and this time he didn't even have to endure an entrance through the proverbial servants quarters or a Presidential lecture. The US and Israel are trying to 'make nice'. For his part, Netanyahu said he was "committed to peace" and called for direct talks with Abbas. And while still calling for "two states living side-by-side in peace and security, the President assured "The US will never ask Israel to take steps to undermine its security interests. We are committed to Israel's security."⁷ [It is interesting to note how the words "peace and security" keep cropping up in the diplomatic language regarding Israel and the Middle East especially. Those familiar words are found specifically in 1Thessalonians 5:3, where Paul uses them as a very specific warning of the destruction that will accompany the coming of the "day of the Lord" (5:2) – God's coming End Times Judgment. “While people are saying, ‘There is peace and security,’ then sudden destruction will come upon them as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.”] Earlier the Palestinian chief Abbas had indicated a willingness to bend a little – with regard to the Israeli settlements – calling for a Palestinian state within the 1967 borders – with some land swapping – if necessary.⁸ [Just for the record, there was no Palestinian state in 1967]

Israeli Defense Minister Ehud Barak called for Israel to present a plan for a Palestinian state complete with proposed borders.⁹ The momentum toward the creation of Palestine was given yet another push when the Egyptian Foreign Minister said that should Israeli-Palestinian negotiations fail, the Arab League would seek the help of the UN in declaring the existence of an independent Palestine.¹⁰ [This could foreshadow the passage in Isaiah 34:12 quoted above. “They shall call its nobles to the kingdom, But none shall be there, and all its princes shall be nothing.”]

Now all of this is going on amidst the background of increasing tensions with Iran over their nuclear ambitions. Even US Defense Secretary Gates recently acknowledge the threat posed by hundreds of Iranian missiles that could target Europe and the Middle East. Under pressure from the administration, British Petroleum – [authors of the current oil spill disaster in the Gulf and therefore susceptible] - fell in line with new US sanctions against Tehran, refusing the Iranians permission to refuel their jets in Britain, Germany and other facilities in the Middle East controlled by the British-based company.¹¹ At the same time, DEBKA is reporting that now a third American carrier group is operating in waters near Iran.¹² Thus the plot thickens.

RELIGIOUS CONFUSION

The United Methodists are a bit confused, it seems. Though their official position is still that sex outside of marriage by members of the clergy remains a “chargeable offense” – at least officially; - they are willing to entertain the notion that that is an idea that might just need changing. Twice now in the last year, the UM’s General Board has published articles arguing that extramarital sex can be...well...ok...under the right circumstances, “whether one is married or single, 16 or 35 or 80, gay, bisexual or straight.” A rather broad definition is that! So how can they justify such a ‘take’, when the Bible is plainly clear on the subject. One unsigned article entitled “Sex and the church” – published in an official journal - gives us a clue to their thinking. It describes as “imaginative biblical reflections” such notions as “a supposedly celibate Jesus.”^{13 14} But though the notion of a “moral, ethical sexual relationship” outside of the Biblical framework may be possible to imagine – it is not in line with Scripture and demonstrably opposed to Christ’s all-inclusive pronouncement on the sacred validity of the law. Here’s Matthew 5:18. “For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.” (KJV) It’s interesting that the Presbyterians are struggling with the same sorts of issues. In their national gathering going on this week there is a tussle going on between liberals and traditionalists. The ‘Left Wing’, if you will, is pushing for the redefinition of marriage that would effectively allow, ordain and bless same sex marriages.¹⁵ As we covered in a recent newsletter, that is a practice that has not been officially approved since the days of Noah. The world ignored the warnings of Noah and lived life oblivious of the ways of God. “But as the days of Noah were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.” (Matthew 24: 37-39) (KJV)

PROPHECY CONFERENCE THIS OCTOBER !

There’s a Prophecy Conference coming to WNY – October 22nd & 23rd of this year. This is intended to focus not just on waking up the church – but also on reaching out to the general public. And that’s where we need some help. Advertising is expensive and we’d like to touch people where they live – targeting a demographic which may be ‘unchurched’ – yet increasingly aware of the world situation. We believe in faith – that they are ripe for the harvest; - ready to hear God’s message of hope. So we are in need of your prayers....and if God so calls you, financial support. Please designate donations to ZEW’S NEW’S REVIEW or ATP Ministry & send and make checks payable to: My Father’s House, 140 Pound Rd, Elma, NY 14059. Many thanks.
