ISLAM ON THE MARCH

I will not mince words. Islam is working for the destruction and submission of the West. Its mission has historically been to subjugate its enemies – the world – with the sword, forcing them to submit to the ‘Religion of Peace’. Even with their undeniable (and inexcusable) excesses and cruelty: The phenomena of the Crusades were only a reaction to the bloody conquests of Islam that threatened the survival of the heart of the Christian world. Islam, by its very nature is committed to the subjugation of the planet. Quoted here are the first lines of the Islamic call to prayer. “Allah is Supreme! Allah is Supreme! Allah is Supreme! I witness that there is no god but Allah - I witness that there is no god but Allah - I witness that Muhammad is his prophet ...”¹ This is the eerie preamble to a faith whose tenets call for its followers to conquer and “slay” and dominate in the name of their god. They work toward a day of conquest when Islam will require that its enemies yield and submit to the supremacy of a worldwide Caliphate.

It is Islam’s terrorist record – its human rights record – its tolerance record – its record of torture – that proves its character. This is no aberration. Those traits are derived from the writings of their holy books; the Koran and the Hadith. These are filled with sayings that characterize unbelievers – and Jews in particular as innately immoral, subhuman and deserving of death. In addition they look forward to a time of triumph, - in the time of judgment - when Islam will rule worldwide. Here are just a couple of examples from the Koran. Sura 3:85: “And whoso seeketh as religion other than the Surrender (to Allah) it will not be accepted from him, and he will be a loser in the Hereafter.” And Sura 9:5: “Then, when the sacred months have passed, slay the idolaters wherever ye find them, and take them (captive), and besiege them, and prepare for them each ambush.”² With this in mind, it is only a short hop to realize that Islam can never come to terms with the West. It can NEVER come to terms with Israel. That land, having once been conquered by Muslim armies, remains in the Islamic mind, forever the property of the believers in Allah. [Add to that the ancient animosity between the offspring of Ishmael & Isaac – the Arab & Jewish sons of Abraham, and you have the seeds of unending conflict.] Even today, when it is demanded of Israel that they sacrifice God-promised, sacred and strategically important territory - to set up a Palestinian state, the followers of Islam still demand the destruction of Israel. This comes from the admittedly radical Hamas as well as the officially moderate Palestinian Authority. Those calls are echoed by Hezbollah in Lebanon as well as the non-Arab Persians of Iran. It is the universal dream of Islam that there will soon come a Universal Caliphate – a holy Muslim Kingdom – ushered in by the Mahdi or Islamic Messiah. Its adherents are continually working toward that end. That is the dream and the self-assigned task of Iranian President Ahmadinejad; - to create the chaos that will allow the Mahdi to come to power.^{3 4}

In those countries where Islam can gain political ascendance it will demand total control, outlawing the expression of other faiths, discriminating and often persecuting Christians, Jews and others, - economically, legally and extra-legally. In the West it has taken a different tactic. It uses the very democratic right and system against the host cultures. Sometimes it intimidates, sometimes it riots or demands rights and separate sharia law, attempting to create separate enclaves of Islamic culture within the country. In New York City now – with numbers approaching 100,000, Muslim students are demanding two Islamic religious holidays be added to the public school calendar.⁵ Elsewhere in that city, progress continues toward the building of a giant mosque on the 9/11 site. In Dearborn, Michigan Muslims used the authorities to have 4 Christian missionaries arrested for disorderly conduct while attending an Arab International Festival. The local police seemed to act only to “placate the Muslims” in the matter.⁶ This is all part of a phenomenon wherein the traditional Christian-based culture of America is being attacked, belittled and demeaned on an altar of political correctness and tolerance. This is often done in the face of evidence of its foolishness. An online Islamic magazine called Inspire recently surfaced offering advice on how to make home-made bombs and “what to pack for jihad”. Bomb making skills and a list of targets is included in the offering.⁷

If that’s not enough, Muslim groups inside the US are creating their own Islamic enclaves, where they seek to live separate from the rest of society, subject only to their own laws and culture. They’re building what they hope become “no go zones”, like those found in many European countries. The Gwynn Oak neighborhood in Baltimore consists of Muslim immigrants and converts from the Black community. According to Islam Watch, they follow “specific moral rules based on Islam and people there speak Arabic.” Another neighborhood in Little Rock does not allow alcohol. One radical Islamic group, As-Sabiqun, actively promotes separatist Muslim communities as stepping stones to the new world order of Islamic world government. Another radical organization – based in Pakistan – called Muslims of the Americas – owns 22 villages. One of these includes Islamberg, in upper New York State. These often provide paramilitary training for its radicalized adherents.⁸

Perhaps even more disturbing than the existence of the threat is the response of our national government to the current security challenges. The Obama administration has downgraded its official concerns regarding terrorism and spent a great deal of time and energy making nice to the Islamic world while castigating our allies the Israelis. The White House has applied unrelenting pressure on Prime Minister Netanyahu to relinquish Judea and Samaria for a Palestinian state as well as East Jerusalem for its capital. One of the most curious statements however came from NASA Chief Charles Bolden, who revealed to al-Jazeera that President Obama had charged him with a very important task. He told the Muslim news site, “perhaps foremost, he wanted me to find a way to reach out to the Muslim world and engage much more with dominantly Muslim nations to help them feel good about their historic contribution to science, math, and engineering.”⁹ Jeffrey Kuhner, writing in the Washington Times, looks at the accumulated body of evidence and makes the argument that Obama is a “cultural” – (not a literal) – but a “cultural Muslim”. The President ignores the fact that “From its inception, political Islam has been at war with the West”, or that it was a close thing that the Christian West was saved by Jan Sobieski and the Polish forces at the Battle of Vienna in 1683. Oddly enough, the battle was fought to throw back the forces of Islam on September 11th, 1683. Kuhner argues that Obama was “raised and educated Muslim.” He has never lost that cultural affinity. Because of that he has abandoned the policies and understandings of previous administrations; especially that of George W Bush, who understood that Israel’s war was our war. Kuhner’s conclusion: Mr Obama “is a naïve, foolish leftist who – blinded by his ideological and cultural blinkers – is playing right into the blood-soaked hands of America’s enemies.”¹⁰ Perhaps so! But that ‘peace-making’ will come with a very real price. Modern Israel is not always right in every policy and action. But the Scriptures are clear that their re-appearance on the world stage was effected by the will of God and that their security and well being is a top priority to the Creator. The precept of Genesis 12:3 is very clear when it speaks to how God’s people are to be treated. “I will bless those who bless you, and him who dishonors you I will curse, and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.” (ESV) I shudder for our country as we turn our blessings into curses.

ECONOMICS & REVOLUTION – PART XII

Over the course of this series we’ve made at least a few of the points that we set out to make. Revolutions are indeed planned and we are in the middle of an attempt to affect another one. The economic chaos that we are living through has the markings of a planned event – not perfectly controlled – but engineered none-the-less. Now in the last installment we touched briefly on the role of the Global Elites and through groups like the Masons, the Illuminati, the CFR, the Bilderbergs and the like. Recall the order of power. On the human level: The Radical / Revolutionary Movement is but a tool of the Global Elites. Even these are broken down with the more elite groups knowing more of the plan. And at the very top of this pyramid lies those that are fully plugged into the Forces behind the Cosmic Rebellion – through the occult. You see, it is religion that drives the revolution. We begin to unravel that puzzle.

WELLSPRINGS OF REVOLUTION

“For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places.” (Ephesians 6:12) (ESV)

Here’s the thesis. We are living through the first stirrings of revolutionary times. And like revolutions before – both successful and not: It is an engineered thing. The fact is: Just about all revolutions have found their source in the machinations of powerful interests for the purpose of changing the national or world order. They are all part of the same Grand Program. Its purpose; To consolidate political power and economic control. Believe it or not, religious thought is the coin of that realm. Satan, and his closest followers lurk in the background behind this entire movement. Oh, and check your history. Successful revolutions end in dictatorships.

Let’s start with that ‘Mother of Modern Revolutions’; France. First, we must understand two essential facts:

- (1) Freemasonry is a religion. And at its upper levels, it is an occult religion, denying Biblical Truth.
- (2) They openly admit that they were the driving force behind the French Revolution – as well as other rebellions and revolutionary movements.

Point 1. - If you really want to know what Freemasonry is all about turn to their own words. Here are the words of Albert Pike who wrote Morals and Dogma back in 1871. A few quotes will suffice to make the point. First, he admits of the Craft’s religious nature. “Every Masonic Lodge is a temple of religion and its teachings are instructions in religion.” Next he begins to reveal the nature of that religion. “Masonry, around whose altars the Christian, the Hebrew, the Moslem, the Brahim, the followers of Confucius and Zoroaster, can assemble as brethren and unite in prayer to the one God who is above all the Baalism.” Finally, he confesses to its duplicitous nature. “Masonry, like all religions, all the Mysteries, conceals its secrets from all except the Adepts and Sages or Elect and uses false explanations and interpretations of its symbols to mislead those who deserve only to be misled.”¹¹

Point 2. – This is common knowledge in the lodges. Marquis de Rosanbo stated, “Freemasonry has worked in a hidden but constant manner to prepare the revolution... it was masonry which made the French revolution.”¹²

The fact is the French Revolution was the product of French Masonry allied with the German Illuminati, founded by Weishaupt in 1776. This alliance was united in their opposition to all things Christian – and in France – specifically the dominant Catholic Church. Masonic writings admit that the Masons “originated the Revolution with the infamous Duke of Orleans at their head.” Nesta Webster contends that it was the Duke of Orleans –Master of the Grand Orient Lodge of Freemasons, - that created the grain shortage by buying up grain stocks and shipping them overseas. That in turn, created starvation conditions among the peasants. But not trusting conditions alone, provocateurs were brought in – “employed and paid by the revolutionary leaders” – to storm the Bastille and get the whole thing started. The “French Revolution the first time where grievances were systematically created in order to exploit them.”¹³ [Shades of President Obama’s Chief of Staff who famously said: “You never want a serious crisis to go to waste.”¹⁴] Of course the chaos didn’t end until Napoleon Bonaparte seized power. I reiterate: Revolution brings dictatorship!

Masonic machinations did not stop with 18th century France. Evidence of their manipulations was found in the revolutionary movements that struck Europe in 1830 & 1848. And the Masonic New Age Magazine confirmed in 1941 that it was the Italian revolutionaries Cavour and Mazzini that “put Victor Emmanuel I on the throne” as the first king of an united Italy in 1861.¹⁵ There is evidence too, that the Philippine Insurrection of 1895, was “orchestrated by Freemasonry.”¹⁶ And as the 19th century marched onward there emerged a strange alliance between the occult and the radical socialist and Marxist tendencies of the age. Now this went beyond the occult worship of the higher degrees of masonry. As one writer describes it: “Throughout nineteenth century Europe we find numerous connections between Gnostics, mystics, occultists and radical socialists.” At the very least, these disparate groups were finding common cause. “Dissident Christian mystics, spiritualists, occultists and radical socialists often found themselves together at the forefront of political movements for social justice, worker’s rights, free love and the emancipation of women.” This was especially true in Russia, where the groundwork was being laid for the coming triumph of Bolshevism.¹⁷ Now, Karl Marx himself had, it seems, direct connections to the occult. He renounced Christ at the age of 18, writing a play in which he sought to lure all mankind into the abyss. In a separate poem he wrote, “Thus heaven I’ve forfeited, I know it full well. My soul once true to God Is chosen for hell.” His partner, Fredrick Engels, also consorted with Satanists.¹⁸ It’s also reported that Marx took up a close relationship with Mazzini, the Italian revolutionary and head of Illuminized Freemasonry. As the movement developed it became the tool used to advance the purposes of the higher levels of Masonry.¹⁹

Thus by the time of the First World War, all the pieces had been put in place. Now even the incident that set off that great conflict – the assassination of the Archduke Franz Ferdinand reeks of Masonic involvement. The murder of the Austrian Archduke was planned and carried out by the Black Hand Society, an offshoot of Freemasonry. The chief assassin, Gavrilo Princep, testified that he believed that Ferdinand had been condemned to death by the Masons. There were other Masonic connections among both the assassins and their planners. Then there is the sordid story of the sinking of the Lusitania. History reveals a trail of contrived circumstances that led the US into the war. It was the studied inaction of British Naval Intelligence – and likely First Lord of the Admiralty, Winston Churchill, in particular that exposed a passenger liner, carrying tons of ammunition to the Brits – to German submarines without proper escort. (Despite efforts to cover the whole matter, Lord Mersey, the man who led the post-sinking investigation, said of the affair: “The Lusitania case was a damned dirty business.”)^{20 21} [That story is covered in my book, THE HISTORY OF THE FUTURE, available at atpministry.com.]

Now the Illuminati / Freemasonry would again be behind yet another revolution. If you recall your history, the Russian Revolution came in two parts. In the first part, Alexander Kerensky became the de facto leader of a socialist-liberal coalition, much less radical than the Bolsheviks of Lenin and Trotsky. The Masons claim a clear hand in this operation. It was a magazine called the New Age, - a product of Scottish Rite Freemasonry that proudly announced: “The first Revolution in March 1917 is said to have been inspired and operated from these lodges and all the members of Kerenski’s government belonged to them.”²² Then Wall Street got in, financing the chaos that would create Soviet Russia. In fact they got the whole thing started by shipping the revolutionaries themselves to Russia to begin the revolution. Jacob Schiff and Max Warburg – international bankers connected to the Illuminati provided the funds. [Interestingly, the Warburgs are an international banking family that had branches in both Germany and the United States. Warburg brothers served on both sides of the table at the Paris Peace Conference of 1919.] President Wilson and the German Government that we were fighting, both had a hand in making the revolution happen. Here are the words of Larry Abram from his book, Call It Conspiracy. “Lenin was sent across Europe-at-war on the famous ‘sealed train.’ With him Lenin took some $5 to $6 million in gold. The whole thing was arranged by the German high command and Max Warburg, through another very wealthy and lifelong socialist by the name of Alexander Helphand, alias ‘Parvus.’ When Trotsky left New York, [he did so] with an American passport with his entourage of 275 revolutionaries.”²³ Besides the Schiffs and the Warburgs, serious money was funneled to the Communists by Morgan and Rockefeller interests.²⁴ Thus we – America – participated in the creation of our own nemesis. But after the fact, far from repenting for their poor choices, the moneyed elite continued that support through decades of funding the Soviet Empire. This was not the contradiction that it would seem. Somehow it served their purposes. Thus we see unfolding that strange, yet persistent alliance between the occult (Masonry etc) - and the elite moneyed interests – marshalling the forces behind great world events.
